Several hundred Omahans who are in the push-more ladies than gentlemen, and most of them pretty and gaily dressed-went "pulling" out to the Charles Street park yesterday afternoon, and enjoyed themselves inordinately.

The verb "to putt" is conjugated in the oldfashioned way-I pull, you pull, he pulls, we pull, etc.-and to "go pulling" means to do something out of the common-something breezy, noisy, daring, to ventilate your lungs and exercise your hands and feet.

The pulling yesterday was in the interests of the Rourke family, whom it was thought had about as much chance of beating the Rock Islands as a snowflake would have in the abode of that disreputable gentleman known as Old Nick.

There were many surprises prepared for yesterday's pulling party out at the park, in addition to the glorious victory achieved, in the way of hard hitting, superb fielding and a number of fantastic exploits by one Hill, who stands on the third bag for the Illinois

The first keg of sensations opened up was the discovery that that excellent old gentleman, Billy Bill Moran, was out of sorts and that Artie Creighton, the son of his father, Jim, was behind the plate for Papa Rourke's children. Many of the pullers were excessively surprised at this discovery and were kept busy plying President Rowe, in his new spring suit, with questions relative to Billy's absence.

But if Artie could always "ketch" such ball as he "ketched" yesterday, and the madding crowd could pull as effectively, Billy wouldn't be missed, if he was even in

EVERYBODY PLAYED NICE BALL. It was the cleanest, nicest game Omaha has played this season, and, under the circumstances, the grandest victory.

Truly, it was such a game as is rarely seen, not only because the girls were all there and the day was perfect, but because the company was so enthusiastic, the Rourkes' bats so full of hits, and because of the masterly play that kept everything running as smoothly and placidly as a summer stream. It is said that Pa felt so good after it was all over that he treated each one of the boys to a glass of hydrant water, fresh from the garden hose, and a wooden tooth-

But to revert to the game. The right thing was always done just at the right time. The crowd roared like the storm's winds in the stands and on the bleachers, and never was a roar lacking when a roar was needed. At regular intervals a gray-clad athlete would dash up to the plate and unload a hit, while the crowd cheered merrily. Whenever one of the Rourkes wanted a run he would just reach out and jab his fork into it and pull it in just like you would pull in a weinerwurst or a piece of sausage. There was always one right there ready. Each one went at his work so artistically and so carefully that during the entire strife there was but one miscue, and that was an excusable one, by Paddy Boyle, who snatched up a handful of Douglas county in lieu of the ball, which Mens. Sonier hit flercely down to him. Each one handled himself with true Delsartean grace. The crowd looked on approvingly and Captain McVey, who looked strange with his moustache driven in, personally supervised the operation, offering suggestions from time to time as to the proper way to swat the sphere or how to skate from one sack The general effect from the grandstand was exceedingly fine and picturesque. It was an admirable bit of ball playing, a great piece of pulling, for a crowd never did pull

DOESN'T TAKE LONG TO TELL IT. The entertainment proper began when Uncle Emmitt pasted Mons. Sonier for a couple of bags on the first ball pitched, and then after Creighton had perished Captain McVey drove him home on another hand-

Jack Munyun and Papa were easy victims, but notwithstanding the Rock Islands got three men on bases, with but one out, the only souvenir they could get out of it was a large and elegant horse collar. Alexander-the-Great Whitehill watted big Zeis, like October's blast wafts the maple leaf, and Captain McVey strangled O'Connor's high

It was one, two, three for the Rourkes in the second, but the Illinoisans took a few refreshments and gloom settled over the park as heavy as one of my wife's first First Alexander deadheaded Russel Sage to first, then Connors toyed with one of his slants for a sack, Rooney Sweeney made it two, but Cantillion was absorbed at first by Then Rats was permitted to walk, Hill stopped one with his back and walked, Zeis balled, O'Connor struck out, and Hussel lammed her up against the fence for a brace Six runs were in and all the little Rock

Islanders were humming "Daisy Belle."
That was one of the afternoon's surprises The next came when, at a signal from Captain McVey, magnesium lights flashed with dazzling refulgence all over the park, and we did not do a thing but make six runs ourselves, and from this on to the close we just simply larruped Mons. Sonier until his vitals were like so much mud, and if you had suddenly pushed him in front of his own mother she would not have known him. He was smashed in the neck, on the jugular and behind the ear, between the eyes, on the nose, up and down the spinal olumn and across the back.

When all the pieces were raked together careful count showed that Papa Bill had just 18 large, full grown runs to his credit, while Captain Sage could only find 8 But the biggest feature of the day was Pedroes. He made two home runs, driving in no less than seven runs, one two-bagger and a single, and attended to his field like Lincoln, June 22.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—Lincoln shut out Peoria in an interesting game before 1,200 people today. It was a verifiable pitchers' battle, Barnes getting decidedly the best of it. Lincoln earned a run in the third on a pair of hits and two sacrifices. SHOTS AT SURPRISE, Osceola and Ulysses Take Exceptions to the Base Ball Team There. OSCEOLLA, Neb., June 22 .- To the Sporting Editor of The Bee: I see a short notice in The Bee from your correspondent at Surprise in regard to the game of ball which the Osceola boys and the Surprise team played June 15. Your correspondent, if he was there and saw the game, knows that his statement is untrue when he save The Osceola boys refused to play it out. Before the game was played the Osceola boys had taken all the bets offered, and had up about $100 to $150 of their money, but the Surprise men were all careful when they put up their money to make this provise; "If the full nine innings are not played out then we will draw our money."

"Play ball" was called and at the end of the fifth inning the score stood 5 to 3 in favor of Osceola, and this is when the "roar" came from Surprise. The first two men at bat for Osceola in the first half of the sixth hit safe. The next man hit a hot grounder to the shortstop and he fumbled it and then endeavored to throw the man out at second, which he failed to do by about two feet. Seeing the bases full and all our strong batters following, the catcher refused to play the game out unless the man on second should be called out, which the umpire refused to do. The Osceola boys stayed on the grounds until the umpire called and gave the game to Osceola. The Surprise boys, after they got a good "roasting" from their business men for being such kickers, followed our boys to the dressing room and wanted them to come back and play it out, which of course they refused to do. H. C. BEEBE.

Secretary Osceola Base Ball Club, ULYSSES, Neb., June 22—(Special to The Bee.)—Ulysses and Surprise crossed bats at the latter place yesterday, resulting in a walkaway for the Ulysses boys, by a score of 9 to 15. Domino Catching Plenty of the Money at 5 to 2.

HORSES GIVEN THEIR FINAL WORK

Jockeys Garrison and Taral Place a Little Money on Their Mounts to Make it Interesting | Race Will Be Started at 3:45.

CHICAGO, June 22 .- Tomorrow afternoon the eleventh annual Derby will be run at Washington park and tonight everything in dicates that it will be a great race. The weather promises to be perfect and the track, while not as fast as it might be, is still in excellent shape. There was little work done today. Domino came out at 4 o'clock and cantered two miles. At a signal the boy "breezed" the unbeaten Keene colt a half mile in 0:52. Domino is remarkably fresh and appears to be as frisky as a 2-year-old. His journey did not have a bad effect on Hornpipe got light work. Senator Grady and Dorian were worked at different times today, but the task set for the two was a light one. They got their severe trials yesterday. Both cantered and walked and breezed for a half mile. Dorlan's time was 0:511/2, finishing strong, apparently "fit as a fiddle" to have made it the other eight furlongs. Grady loafed a bit, but took kindly to a half mile, which he did in 0:51. None of the other animals were given more than light work. The great heat at the track has induced the trainers to keep their charges well under cover during the day. In the betting, which was generally heavier than usual, Senator Grady was a heavy favorite, and lots of money was going in on him and Domino. The odds tonight were: Senator Grady, 8 to 5; Domino, 5 to 2; Dorlan, 5 to 1; Hornpipe, 4 to 1; Despot, 10 to 1; Prince Carl, 15 to 1; Alcenor, 3 to 1; Lucky Dog, 30 to 1; Cash Day, 20 to 1; Resplendent, 3 to 1; Orinda, 50 to 1. Ullman's books took in several bets of $1,000 on Grady at 8 to 5, and Snapper Garrison, who will ride the colt tomorrow, put $200 on his mount at 2 to 1. Taral put $500 on Domino to win, and there was a heavy amount on Dorian at even money to run

The Derby will be run about 3:45 o'clock, unless there is a long delay at the post. For the first time outside of California this year the Australian saddle cloth system with its paddock arrangements will be properly used. Each horse will be saddled at the paddock and in a stall numbered in accordance with that on its cloth and on the pro-

FRIDAY WITH THE GALLOPERS. Eight Thousand People Watch a Fin.
Program Contested at Sheepshead Bay. NEW YORK, June 22.-At Sheepshead Bay today fully 8,000 people were present to watch some fine racing. Nearly every race resulted in a hard finish, and not until the last jumps were several contests decided. The first race was five and a half furlongs, and Hugh Penny had a sharp tussle with Merry Monarch all through the stretch and finally won by a short head. Wernberg was two lengths away in the third place. In the race for the Daisy stakes Annisette looked like a winner, but Harry Reed came very fast at the end and caught her at the wire. In the fifth race there was a splendid contest between Belmar and The Bluffer, and The Bluffer won by a short head on the wire. READY FOR THE FINALS TODAY.

Three More Matches Decided in the Local Tennis Tournament. In spite of the fact that there had been no rain since early in the morning of the day before the courts of the Omaha Lawn Tennis club were very wet at the time for for the resumption of the tournament last night, and only two courts were in condition for play. Yet three matches were got through, and if only there is no more rain in the morning but few matches will be left over for the third week.

Young and Austin started in early last evening in their double with McKell and Haskell, and had little trouble in disposing of them by two sets to love, although in the first they allowed their opponents to make a deuce set. Of course the handicap had much to do with this.

In the second court, while this was in progress, Horton and Gates met Hayerstlek and Colpetzer, and, in a match in which many pretty plays were made on both sides without either team putting up as good a game as they might have done, captured two games in the first set and three in the second before they were beaten. Haverstick, of course, played the strongest game of any of the quarfet, though many of the best placed volleys were put in by his partner. Gates tried to play a net game, but lacked confidence, and many of the fast balls got away past him before he was fairly ready for them. From the back of the court Mr. Horton got in plenty of winning strokes and saved more than one ball that appeared to have been lost.

The contest between Young and Austin was a little tame. It was played on even terms, which made it a foregone conclusion that Austin would win. The score indicates, however, how closely they played. Scores: Men's Singles: Semi-final round—Roy Austin beat C. H. Young, 6-4.

Men's Doubles: Second round—G. E. Haverstick and M. Colpetzer beat H. Horton and O. Gates, 6-2, 6-3; C. H. Young and Roy Austin beat H. S. McKell and F. Haskell, 8-6, 6-2.

Today, weather permitting, will be the best of the tournament. But then the same promise was made a week ago, and the weather did not permit, not by a long way. It would perhaps be better not to give the program, for it contains so much that is good that it would be sure to bring the rain in large volumes if it were published. Suffice it to say that every effort will be made to finish off both the men's singles and the men's doubles and leave nothing for next week but the mixed doubles. A start will be made early in the afternoon.

So long has this tournament been dragging along that it will run almost into Haskell, and had little trouble in disposing of them by two sets to love, although in afternoon.

So long has this tournament been dragging along that it will run almost into the next one that is scheduled for the courts of the Omaha club. Next month courts of the Omaha club. Next month the state singles championship will be competed for on the same ground as the city tournament is now being played on. The doubles will be at Hastings on the 18th and three successive days and a week later, probably commencing on the 25th,
the singles will be competed for in Omaha.
At the end of August an interstate tournament is being arranged for.

WRITES HAPPY SONGS.

Charles F. Pidgin, Whose Popular Airs Are Everywhere Sung.

What a tiresome world it would be if there were no songs in it.

One of the most versatlle song writers is Charles F. Pidgin of Cambridge, Mass., whose portrait is here given. Everybody knows his songs. Schoolboys whistle them and sober business men go about humming them.

When a writer of popular songs is tired and worn out he cannot do good work-nor can any one. All over the world physicians of every school prescribe Palne's celery compound where overwork and anxiety has brought down the tone of the nervous system. Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., of Dartmouth college, the eminent discoverer of Paine's celery compound, devoted the most fruitful years of his remarkable career to the study of the blood and nerves.

Very soon after taking this remarkable remedy the circulation is favorably affected; remedy the circulation is favorably affected; stand on their feet all day long, build up there is a marked desire for hearty food, the heart's action becomes tranquilized and Paine's celery Compound. It rids the sys-ness disappears, thus stopping the waste and staying the progress of disease. As long as waste continues, disease continues, and the first step in the recovery many a person's health has been the first bottle of Paine's celery compound. Mr. Pidgin says that he used Paine's celery compound as a nerve tonic and laxative. He was not sick, only "tired" from press of business. Its use put him in good condition again. "I recommend it," he says, "to liter-ary friends." Weariness, lack of energy, and despondency are more a matter of nerves and brain than of the muscles. Paine's celery compound through the nerves, brain, and every important organ. There soon comes an end to tired, worn out feelings, loss of appetite and
